

Your Linacre Legacy-The Bamborough Circle

A bequest to Linacre means a great deal to the College. We are pleased to welcome those who have stated their intention to leave a gift to Linacre in their Will into the Bamborough Circle in recognition of their support and generosity.

Membership of the Bamborough Circle

Members are invited to an annual event to thank you for your far-sighted generosity and to share the latest news and our plans for the College's future with you. You will also receive a special pin badge, which we encourage you to wear with pride at College events.

The Bamborough Circle is named in honour of the creator and first Principal of Linacre College, John Bernard Bamborough, also fondly known as 'Bam'.

The Circle has members representing many careers, backgrounds, ages and countries, and we hope you will consider joining this group of supporters.
